Sunland Journeys - Your Passage to the World

The unparalleled unique geography and location of the Maldives, the warm hospitality of the people, with more than hundreds of luxurious resorts offering the perfect, all-inclusive private getaways, and a diversely enchanting and vivid underwater world are but a few attractions that travellers get to relish when visiting this beautiful island chain.

With tourism being the largest economic industry in the Maldives, many travel agencies in the Maldives are catering to the inbound travel sector. In recent years, the number of Maldivians travelling abroad has increased steadily as well. The trend is driven by fast-growing technology and convenient travel routes; with more and more people intrigued to travel after seeing beautiful destinations around the world on the internet.

Emirates Expands Flight Training Academy's Aircraft Fleet

Emirates Flight Training Academy (EFTA) continues to live up to its promise of offering cutting-edge tech and state-of-the-art aircraft to train pilots of the future and help close the industry's skills gap. The Academy is now bolstering its current fleet with an order for three twin-engine DA42-VI and its corresponding flight simulator from Diamond Aircraft Industries – a leading manufacturer of aircraft in general aviation, based in Austria. The total deal is worth EUR 4 million in list prices.

The AUSTRO jet-fuel powered DA42-VI aircraft is slated to be the flagship that ushers in multi-engine piston (MEP) training at EFTA.
